VENGEANCE IS THE LORD'S

In spiritual warfare Satan uses agents against us. He may use a boss at work, a colleague, a jealous neighbor or a step- mother. What should be our response as we relate to these people who obviously do not have our good at heart? What part do we play in meting out punishment on our enemies?

One time Jesus asked His disciples to go into a Samaritan village to get things ready for Him, but the people there did not welcome Him because He was heading for Jerusalem. When the disciples John and James saw this they were very angry and asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?" - (Luke 9:51-56). How many times have we wished for fire to come down from heaven and destroy our enemies? What was Jesus' response? He rebuked them, telling them that His mission on earth was not to destroy.

In this Newsletter, I would like to share a written response that I gave to a young man who wanted to know how to deal with an issue where he was aware that his step- mother was using witchcraft against him resulting in him having sexual dreams involving her. He asked me to read Psalm 35 and comment on how we should deal with our enemies.

INSPIRATIONAL VERSE

Isaiah 41:10

*So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.*

"Dear _____ I prayed for you as I promised that I would. I read Psalm 35 where David is asking God to deal ruthlessly with his offenders. That was a prayer under the law. No grace, no mercy - just judgment. It is the Old Testament's dealing with the enemy. They were helpless against the enemy and had to ask for God to help them lest their enemies finished them.

That was before Jesus gave a death- blow to Satan on the cross of Calvary. After Jesus dies on the cross, we are now told that we are more than conquerors and that He who is in us (the Holy Spirit) is greater than he who is in the world. We are the ones that now have authority - Luke 10:19 "I give you power to tread on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy!" Where as David was fighting flesh and blood, we are now told that we are not fighting flesh and blood but principalities and powers and spirits of wickedness in high places. David had no authority over evil spirits but we do.

Once we have broken the curses that rendered us powerless before these dark forces, now we are told in Ephesians 6:10-18 how to deal with these forces. Your battle is not against your step- mother but the dark forces that are using her. She is just a side- show. Satan would love for you to concentrate on her. God loves her and it is not His will that she should perish. Deal ruthlessly with the spirits that are using her but pray for her salvation. The Bible tells us to pray for those who persecute us and wrongfully use us.

We are now told that the only way to stand is by putting on the full armor of God so that when the day of evil comes we will be able to stand our ground. This verse promises us that breaking curses do not protect us from the day of evil. It will come. Only this time we will not face that day as a victim but as a conqueror and victor. What is this armor?

- The belt of truth (Knowing our identity in Christ)
- Breastplate of righteousness (Watching how we walk daily).
- Readiness that comes from the Gospel of peace (Always ready to pursue peace in our relationships).
- The shield of faith (Certain of victory that has still not manifested in the physical).
- The helmet of salvation (Protects our mind from the lies of satan).
- Praying in the Spirit (Tongues- builds us up in the most holy faith-Jude 20).
- The sword of the Spirit (The word of God).

In my last teaching on Breaking Invisible Barriers at Homecare I talked about the power encounter, versus the truth encounter. In the power encounter we kick out demons while in the truth encounter we are so immersed in the life of Christ that the demons leave of their own accord. Demons hate highly charged spiritual atmospheres.

So what is my advice? Stand your ground against the enemy! When he attacks you with a sexual dream, take him head on in the morning, using Ephesians chapter 6 as I have outlined above. Remind him of his defeat and that no matter how he attacks you have victory over him. Jesus made a shameful spectacle of Satan as He triumphed over him on the cross of Calvary! Just keep renewing your mind by meditation on the finished work of the cross and who you are in Christ! Come against the dreams and cancel them and refuse to be the person in the dream.

Don't accept that the person having sex in the dream was you. Tell Satan that the person in the dream was a masquerade trying to impersonate you and command them to be arrested by the 'heavenly policemen' in the name of Jesus Christ! Don't make it a big issue each time Satan attacks. Let the onus be upon you to walk in victory as a conqueror, which is who you truly are. Meditate over and over on verses that tell you who you are in Christ. Ephesians chapters 1&2 are excellent. Be consumed with God's love for you and the honored position that you have in Christ."

Love and blessings!

TESTIMONIES

-  I thank God for this ministry. After the deliverance of my son who had been suffering from asthma got healed. For 3 weeks now, he has had no symptoms and did not use his inhaler. He was playing in the dust, which he could never do before. He would be play outside in the cold and would not be affected. We eventually threw away his inhaler. Praise the Lord!*
-  After we broke the curse of unemployment, I got a Job! Why am I excited? Although I have masters, I have not been able to get a job for 5years! Although it is a 3 month contract, I know that the curse has been broken Amen! (it is now 8 months later and this person is still working)*
-  Before the lord delivered me from bondage, I had this heaviness every time I wanted to pray and at times no words could come out of my mouth. Hallelujah, that is all gone. I can now pray any time and for hours. Praise God!*

THE FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

Nellie Shani

The feedback that I have received from the people who have attended our teachings on Breaking Invisible barriers is that the message is simple. A lot of people have said that after listening to the teachings they do not fear Satan any more. We are indeed more than conquerors! A challenge that I would like to extend to our seminar attendees is that they should share the teaching with somebody else. A verse that comes to mind is one where Paul was speaking to Timothy who had received a lot of teaching from him.

2 Timothy 2:2 "And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others."

THE BOOK STAND

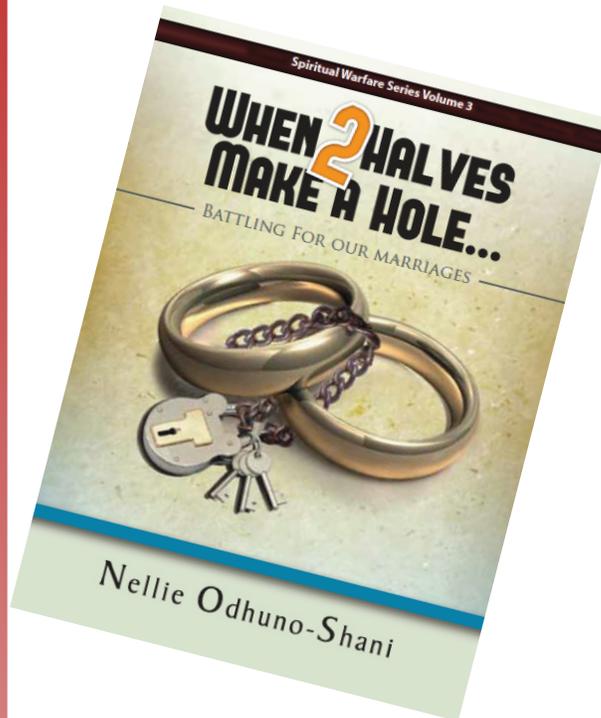

BREAKING INVISIBLE BARRIERS

Many Christians today are living a life of constant struggle and failure no matter what they do to try and improve their lot in life.

They are fighting something they do not understand.

This book explores these invisible barriers and how to break them by the Power of the Cross.

WHEN TWO HALVES MAKE A HOLE... Battling for Our Marriages

Behind every broken marriage is a fierce battle that was lost in the spiritual realm. Many people do not realize that from the moment that they say "I do" a raging battle starts whose sole objective is the break-up of the marriage.

The Bible warns us that our enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. We are told not to be a passive onlooker but to "Resist him....." Thus battling for our marriage is not an option but a command.
